Inglehart, Ronald, and Pippa Norris. *Rising Tide: Gender Equality and Cul-

SOFYA KOVALEVSKAYA

"This remarkable Russian novella combines contemporary social themes, elements of the author's extraordinary autobiography, and the controversial 'woman's question' of nineteenth-century culture."

Translator and editor of the Norton Critical Editions
Notes from Underground, Fathers and Sons, and Tolstoy's Short Fiction

Never before translated into English, Nihilist Girl is the coming-of-age story of Vera Barantsova, a young aristocrat who longs to devote her life to a cause. Her privileged world is radically changed by Alexander II's emancipation of the serfs. Vera first hopes to follow in the footsteps of Christian martyrs, but a neighboring landowner—a liberal professor fired from his position at Saint Petersburg University and exiled to his estate—opens her eyes to the injustice in Russia.

Reclaiming Klytemnestra
Kathleen L. Komar
In this interdisciplinary study, Komar first examines the classical archetype of the axe-wielding Greek queen Klytemnestra established by writers such as Aeschylus, Sophocles, and Euripides. Turning to the twentieth century, she investigates the work of modern writers who, since the 1960s, have reconceptualized Klytemnestra's actions and motivations within contemporary contexts.

When Children Want Children
Leon Dash
"This groundbreaking book by an extraordinary journalist made me understand why children have children in a way that I never have before. Dash makes it clear that no issue is more important to the future of the black community at large than this one."
